Call To Worship: Barbara Armbruster

Throughout the generations
God has sent the message of peace and reconciliation
in the words of the prophets,
in acted parable,
in history
in nature.

God has revealed a loving intent towards men and women.
Finally, in due time, God sent Jesus into the world to demonstrate in human terms God's way of living and loving.
So today we come to prepare our hearts and minds once more to receive the Gospel of hope and healing.
In this place we are invited to open ourselves to the Spirit of God.
to prepare a place for God in our lives.
Come then, let us worship God. Amen.

Habakkuk 1:12,13, 2:1-4

1:12 The Prophet's Question

1:12 Are You not from everlasting,

O Lord my God, my Holy One?

We shall not die.

O Lord, You have appointed them for judgment;

O Rock, You have marked them for correction.

13 You are of purer eyes than to behold evil,

And cannot look on wickedness.

Why do You look on those who deal treacherously,

And hold Your tongue when the wicked devours

A person more righteous than he?

2:1 Then the Lord answered Habbakuk and said:

Write the vision

And make it plain on tablets,

That he may run who reads it.

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time;

But at the end it will speak, and it will not lie.

Though it tarries, wait for it;

Because it will surely come,

It will not tarry.

4 "Behold the proud,

His soul is not upright in him;

But the just shall live by his faith.

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

This unrhymed 21st-century paraphrase effectively communicates the urgency of Psalm 68 and its celebration of God's power, manifest both in destroying all that hinders God's purposes and in caring for those who have no other helper. Such a God deserves our thanks and praise.

Like many African American spirituals, this one mixes the language of biblical narrative with veiled but effective allusions to the hope of escape from slavery, either by crossing rivers into free states or by participating in organized efforts like the Underground Railroad.

Let There Be Peace on Earth

Let there be peace on earth
And let it begin with me
Let there be peace on earth
The peace that was meant to be
With God as our father
Christians all are we
Let us walk with each other
In perfect harmony

Let peace begin with me
Let this be the moment now
With every step I take
Let this be my solemn vow
To take each moment
And live each moment
In peace eternally
Let there be peace on earth

And let it begin with me
