Rev. Tina Salvaneschi

Welcome to you as we call upon the name of Christ.
We gather tonight to recall the story of the night Jesus was betrayed.

Are you prepared to come to the feast of Jesus, the Christ, whose life was poured out for you?

People: By the grace of God, we are.

Are you able to watch with Jesus at prayer in the garden -- to struggle yourselves and in unity with God's will for you?

People: By the grace of God, we are.

Then let us praise God, even in this hour of darkness!

Pastor: The Lord Be with You

People: And Also with You

Pastor: Lift up your Hearts to the Lord

People: We lift up our Hearts

Pastor: Let us give thanks unto the Lord

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

People: God of all grace and steadfast love, greatly is your name to be praised in all the earth.
Bring us to this feast of remembrance
with open hearts!

People: Amen

What wondrous love is this (Hymn 215)

Verse 1 What wondrous love is this,
O my soul, O my soul,
what wondrous love is this, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this that caused the Lord of bliss to bear the dreadful curse for my soul, for my soul,
to bear the dreadful curse for my soul!

Verse 2 When I was sinking down,
sinking down, sinking down,
when I was sinking down, sinking down,
when I was sinking down
beneath God's righteous frown,
Christ laid aside his crown for my soul, for my soul,
Christ laid aside his crown for my soul!

Verse 3 To God and to the Lamb,
I will sing, I will sing,
to God and to the Lamb, I will sing;
to God and to the Lamb who is the great I am,
while millions join the theme, I will sing, I will sing;
while millions join the theme, I will sing!

Verse 4 And when from death I'm free, I'll sing on, I'll sing on;
and when from death I'm free, I'll sing on;
and when from death I'm free, I'll sing and joyful be,
and through eternity, I'll sing on, I'll sing on;
and through eternity I'll sing on.

When I survey the wondrous cross (Hymn 223)

Verse 1 When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of glory died, my richest gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride.

Verse 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, save in the death of Christ my God;
all the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.

Verse 3 See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
sorrow and love flow mingled down;
did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Verse 4 Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were a present far too small;
love so amazing, so divine,
demands my soul, my life, my all.

The Old Rugged Cross

Verse 1 On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross
The emblem of suff'ring and shame
And I love that old cross where the dearest and best
For a world of lost sinners was slain

Chorus

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross
Till my trophies at last I lay down
I will cling to the old rugged cross
And exchange it some day for a crown

Verse 2 O the old rugged cross so despised by the world
Has a wondrous attraction for me
For the dear Lamb of God left His glory above
To bear it to dark Calvary

Verse 3 In the old rugged cross stained with blood so divine
A wondrous beauty I see
For 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died
To pardon and sanctify me

Verse 4 To the old rugged cross I will ever be true Its shame and reproach gladly bear
Then He'll call me some day to my home far away
Where His glory forever I'll share

Beneath the cross of Jesus (Hymn 216)

Verse 1 Beneath the cross of Jesus
I fain would take my stand,
the shadow of a mighty rock
within a weary land;
a home within the wilderness,
a rest upon the way,
from the burning of the noontide heat,
and the burden of the day.

Verse 2 Upon the cross of Jesus mine eye at times can see the very dying form of One who suffered there for me;
and from my stricken heart with tears
two wonders I confess:
the wonders of redeeming love
and my unworthiness.

Verse 3 I take, O cross, thy shadow
for my abiding place;
I ask no other sunshine than
the sunshine of his face;
content to let the world go by,
to know no gain or loss,
my sinful self my only shame,
my glory all the cross.
